

The Good News

St. Anne's in-the-Fields
Episcopal Church

Fall 2023

From the Rector

Welcome Back from Summer!

I hope your summer was refreshing and rejuvenating, full of adventures in the afternoon sun, and lazy afternoons during the rain. Katie, Addie, and I had a wonderful summer, highlighted by a lengthy trip south to see some family. During one long stretch of interstate, I thought about what makes travel so much fun and interesting, reflecting on the sense of discovery that spending time in a new place inspires. When I travel, I find I am way more attentive and alert to small things — town names, license plate numbers, local customs and favorite places to dine, accents, topography... even church names (my favorite was Little Hope Baptist Church, ha!).

The questions I considered on returning home were "How do I continue to foster this attentiveness, the awakesness to the wondrous and mysterious particularities of my world, even when it's all very familiar? How do I come to realize for myself what GK Chesterton was getting at when he said, 'The whole object of travel is not to set foot on foreign land; it is at last to set foot on one's own country as a foreign land'?"

The first Christians, you may know, weren't called Christians — that title came later. The earliest companions of Jesus were called "Followers of the Way." The first-generation Christ followers discovered a new way of being in the world. Their travels with Jesus changed them. They made a new set of discoveries, set on travelling through their lives with eyes wide open to Jesus' Spirit flashing forth across their path, illuminating their journey, awakening new possibilities.

As I am coming to see it, I think our spiritual community at St. Anne's is here to help us make new discoveries in our lives. As we travel with Jesus — through Ordinary Time, Advent, Epiphany, Lent, Holy Week, Easter, and Pentecost — we come to see the world through his eyes. We come to see the particularities of our own lives with the fresh expectancy that we often have when we travel. The Holy Spirit leads each of us deeper into our lives, and if our hearts aren't exactly a foreign land, they are full of depth, mystery, and beauty, and we share this journey of another year together, eyes wide open to what we might be able to discover within and among us as travelers on Jesus' way.

Peace, Garrett

An Update from your Wardens

There comes a point every August when there's no use denying that darkness falls earlier, and mornings, at least in Maine at our summer cottage, are down-vest chilly. We all know the signs. Apples are ripening in the orchards and there's a stack of back-to-school supplies for St. Stephens kids in the foyer at St. Anne's. Summer is ending and the transition to fall, ready or not, has begun. I hope each of you can come back feeling renewed and refreshed from the quieter summer months whether you travelled far away or just enjoyed your backyard.

We begin our new season with good news to share: under Co-Warden Rob Parker's guidance, we've successfully negotiated and signed a new long-term (10 years) lease for our Terrace Level. The new tenant, Ms. Yanying Liu and her husband, Mr. Kai Bao, plan to open the Lincoln School for Children, a daycare and preschool. Ms. Liu is an experienced daycare/preschool operator (she owns another daycare and is the director of a third) and lives in Harvard, MA. Currently she is working on site improvements and applying for her state license from the Department of Early Education and Care. As many of you recall, our prior tenants included Lincoln Country Day School and, during Covid, the Carroll School. We know that this use of the space is compatible with our church life and we look forward to seeing this latest venture succeed to our mutual benefit.

We've been busy over the summer addressing several pressing property issues with shout-outs to Jennie Cook and Rob Parker for leading the efforts. These include upgrades to our fire suppression systems, replacing the voice alert portion of the fire alarm panel, fixing gutters to solve moisture issues, touching up the paint in Flint Hall and bathrooms, and keeping our AC chiller going for another year. Special thanks to Bob Schudy for gifting and installing the two highly-efficient window air conditioners in our Sanctuary which helped keep temperatures cooler during Sunday services. Thanks also to Lise Stahl Brown, Selina Rossiter, and Deb Howe for sprucing up our Memorial Garden and flagging on-going maintenance needs in this special and sacred site of our campus.

As we look ahead, excitement and planning has begun for celebrating our 150th Anniversary in 2024! Vestry and a Steering Committee are currently working on a parish-wide dinner, forums on our history, a special year-round outreach initiative, a possible speaker series, and much more. If you have ideas or would like to get more involved, we welcome your participation! Please contact me, Lise Stahl Brown, or Garrett directly.

I look forward to seeing familiar and new faces in the pews and hope you can join us on for our Ministry Fair in Flint Hall on September 17 showcasing different commissions and groups at St. Anne's.

Anne Jones, Co-Warden

Ministry Fair & Welcome Back: September 17

This Sunday, September 17, after each service Flint Hall will be your place to learn more about all of St. Anne's ministries, programs, and community offers: join us for the Ministry Fair! This is a great in-person opportunity to learn about our groups' purposes, work, and past and future activities. You will learn more about the Altar Guild, can sign up to be a lector, check out the Social Justice Commission's events, offer to host a future Coffee Hour, and chat with friends old and new. As our official Welcome Back Coffee Hour at 11 am, each group will offer a tasty treat to compliment our "not-your-average-church-coffee" coffee from Equal Exchange, brewed fresh. So come grab a cup and join in our St. Anne's community.

Worship

Back to School Blessings: September 17

Come to church this Sunday to kick off Back to School with a blessing! At the 10 am service, we will bless our students, our educators, and the pencil cases we've filled for St. Stephen's Afterschool Program.

New! Centering Prayer & Meditation

Come take a calming and recharging mid-week break! In this bi-weekly group, we will devote roughly 30 minutes to silent group prayer and meditation in the Parish Library every other Wednesday from 6 pm to 6:40, starting on September 27. We Feel free to drop in as your schedule allows: this is a low commitment but high relaxation group!

LEM/Lector Scheduling

The scheduling of Lay Eucharistic Ministers (LEMs) and Lectors is now being handled by Joe. Using previous lists, Joe has scheduled readers from now until the end of 2023 and has shared this list with all current volunteers. Many people have come off and on the LEM/Lectors list, and it is sometimes hard for us to keep track - if you find your name missing, or need to take a break, please email Joe at joe@stanneslincoln.org. Also, if you find you cannot make your designated Sunday at the last minute, please text Joe directly so he can try to get a replacement.

Evensong, October 1 at 5 pm

Come and experience evensong, an Anglican liturgy of rare and mystical beauty in which the Word is illuminated by music. Our next evensong will be offered on Sunday evening October 1 at 5pm, when we will honor Thérèse of Lisieux, known as "The Little Flower." The choir will chant the psalms and prayers, sing the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis as set by Stanford, and offer the lovely anthem "Like as the Hart" by Herbert Howells. Join us!

Blessing of the Animals: October 8 at 10 am Service

After several years' hiatus, we are bringing the Blessing of the Animals to the 10 am service. Bring your dog, cat, hedgehog, rabbit, or other creature — whether "real," stuffed, or pictured, to church on October 8 when our clergy will give them a short blessing in honor of St. Francis, patron saint of animals.

Fauré Requiem for All Saints' Day, November 5

On Sunday evening November 5 at 5 pm we will observe the feast of All Saints with the Requiem by French composer Gabriel Fauré, accompanied by a chamber orchestra. In this serene and beautiful work, beloved by singers and listeners alike, Fauré sets the traditional words of the Latin Requiem mass to peaceful, moving music. Join us at this special event as we gather to remember all the faithful departed.

Altar Guild

St. Anne's Altar Guild invites you to join our ministry in one or two ways (or both!). We are a friendly group and we're looking for new members. A pair of members meets each week to set God's table while enjoying one another's fellowship in a quiet sanctuary. Preparations take about an hour and clearing after each service another 20-30 minutes. At Christmas and Easter our whole group comes together to adorn the Sanctuary in festive glory. Flower arranging experience is not required to join our group! And men are welcomed, too. Contact Lise Stahl Brown (lisestahlbrown@gmail.com) or Tania Philipp (twphilipp@gmail.com) with questions or interest.

Perpetual Flowers Listing

Have you ever wondered why "The altar flowers are given in loving memory of..." is written at the end of the weekly bulletin? The Altar Guild Perpetual Flower Listing is your answer! Parishioners and their families have long made donations to the Altar Guild, annually or one-time, to honor a meaningful date in memory of a loved one: this could be a birthday, an anniversary, or simply a time of year that holds special significance. If you are interested in sponsoring altar flowers, contact Tara Mitchell (taramitchell365@gmail.com); the suggested donation is $50.

Adult Formation

Forum Schedule

This fall we will be hosting a variety of adult formation activities, with our first installment, "Prayer as Divine Encounter: Why Do Christians Pray?" at 9 am on September 24 which kicks off a multi-week exploration of how we encounter the Divine. The forums that follow will focus on a range of topics including different ways to pray and the spiritual practices parishioners use to experience God. We will also be supporting a series on "Faith and Fiction," as well as partnering with the Social Justice Commission for an event on Indigenous spirituality. Last, but certainly not least, in Advent we will again hold a Moth-style story hour over two or three Sunday forums, at which parishioners share stories on a spiritual theme.

The Baptized Imagination: An Exploration of Themes on Spirit in Short Fiction

Do you see literature – in this case fiction – as a way to inspire your faith? Often we read just for the sheer pleasure of it, the delight of having our worlds opened up to new perspectives, our empathy muscles strengthened. We all likely have a book or a story we've found particularly illuminating and meaningful on our life journey. This three-part series will be facilitated by Kay Peterson, Al Rossiter, and Garrett Yates; we'll read three short stories and gather to discuss what faith themes emerge, thinking together how short stories in particular have a unique way of evoking an "aha" moment, a critical choice, or growth. By reading Raymond Carver, Tobias Wolff, and Flannery O'Connor, we'll seek to discover how the Holy Spirit moves in and through short fiction to awaken our imaginations and fuel our faith. All are invited! Please RSVP to Garrett (garrett@stanneslincoln.org) if you would like to join us. And note: pdfs of the readings will be supplied beforehand in the parish weekly email.

Tuesdays 6:30-8pm in the Parish Library (Zoom option also available)

October 10: Raymond Carver, "Cathedral," led by Al Rossiter

October 24th: Tobias Wolff, "Flyboys," led by Garrett Yates

November 7: Flannery O'Connor, "The Lame Shall Enter First," led by Kay Peterson

Women's Bible Study

All are invited to the WBS Welcome Tea on Thursday, September 14, from 10-11:30 am, in Flint Hall. Please bring a favorite mug and consider sharing a highlight of your summer. All are welcome! RSVP to kaypeterson32@aol.com.

Also, our WBC Retreat is scheduled for Friday, October 27 to Sunday, October 29, 2023. We will stay at a lodge with single rooms and private baths at the beautiful Barbara C. Harris Camp and Conference Center in New Hampshire (www.bchcenter.org). Arrival is Friday at 3 pm; departure is Sunday at 2 pm. The cost is $360 for the weekend and includes all meals.

Men's Group

The St. Anne's Men's Group continues to meet in the Library on Wednesday mornings from 8:30-10 am. You are welcome to join either in person or by using our Zoom site (see Weekly Email for link). We begin our discussion with one of the readings for the coming Sunday (usually the Gospel) and branch out into all kinds of topics related to prayer, faith, spirituality. We have found our Wednesday meetins to be a wonderful way to get to know fellow-parishioners. Please contact Al Rossiter (arossiter@bbns.org) if you have any questions.

Women's Book Group

The St. Anne's Women's Book Group will meet on Tuesday Sept. 12 from 7:30-9 pm in the Library. Join us to talk about your favorite summer reads and discuss our meetings for the upcoming year. We welcome new members - the only requirement is that you have to love books! Email Katie Yates at katharinemcampbell@gmail.com for more information.

Breathe-Move-Pray Returns

Please join us on the second and fourth Sunday evenings of each month for the return of Breathe-Move-Pray, a time of quiet and gentle movement in the Sanctuary by the font. Now starting at 5 pm, Paul Hoffman will lead us through yoga-derived movement and breath patterns that support and enhance Christian prayer life. Sessions last about half an hour and participants are encouraged to just show up!

St. Anne's Parish Pilgrimage to Israel

We have just five spots left for our St. Anne's parish pilgrimage to Israel led by Rev. Peter Miano, the executive director of the Society for Biblical Studies. Our travel dates are February 16-25, 2024, to encounter Christ at a new depth and in a new way. If you are interested or have questions, contact Joe (joe@stanneslincoln.org).

Outreach & Community

Our B-Love Pantry: Filling a Great Need

Our St. Stephen's B-Love Pantry continues to meet a vital need in the greater Boston community, and we need your help to keep it going. Each month, some of our parishioners buy, organize, and deliver 50 grocery bags to St. Stephen's in Roxbury, where they are distributed to those in need of additional food. The Pantry is located in the St. Anne's foyer, and we are always needing replenishment! Our date to delivery this month's collection is September 29. Please pick up a shopping list bookmark and add a few items to your next trip to the market. You are welcome to join us on those days we fill the bags too! For more information or questions, please email Patrice Barton at patriceburnsbarton@gmail.com.

2023 Swift to Love

This year we are trying out a new system for our Swift to Love program: Jennie and Beth will manage the logistics of advertising and collecting donations to each month's charity, with parishioner-sponsors needing only to make announcements and invite forum speakers (if desired). If you have interest in supporting a charity - whether local or international - please let Garrett know. You will choose a month for which all online STL donations will be dedicated to your charity, along with the plate count on the third Sunday of that month, and decide whether you will invite a guest speaker for a forum, make announcements at church, etc. Soon after the close of your month, Beth will notify you of the total collection amount, and send off a check to the charity.

St. Stephen's Pencil Cases

2023 marks our 12th Annual Pencil Case Donation to benefit the St. Stephen's Youth Programs (SSYP)! Our friends at SSYP look forward to receiving their personal after-school supply kits each year. We hope to fill approximately 100 boxes and zipper pouches for grades K-5 and grades 6-12. St. Anne's has purchased the cases and pouches in bulk, and you can pick one up at church, fill it with the designated supplies from the included list, then drop it back at church; you are welcome to buy bulk supplies too and we will fill the cases. We aim to keep the boxes and pouches exactly the same; each will have a list of the specific items needed. Filled cases and/or supplies due by this Sunday, September 17. Contact Sue Vollaro at suvollaro@yahoo.com with any questions. Peace, thanks, and happy shiny-new-school-supply shopping!

Social Justice Commission News

This fall the Social Justice Commission (SJC) is excited to coordinate several events: first, we will continue our tradition of having soup-supper movie nights, the first of these held on Friday, September 29. We invite all parishioners, their families, and their friends to the screening of Gather, an intimate portrait of the growing movement amongst Native Americans to reclaim their spiritual, political and cultural identities through food sovereignty, while battling the trauma of centuries of genocide. The film will be preceded by a soup supper in Flint Hall at 6 pm.

Second, we will be coordinating a group from St. Anne's to attend the annual Day of Mourning held in Plymouth, MA, on Thanksgiving Day, followed by a meal together the next day. Third, and more immediately, we encourage all St. Anne's parishioners to consider joining us on September 17 for the March to End Fossil Fuels in New York City. Finally, we are pursuing multiple opportunities to learn about and support Indigenous rights, including inviting a member of the Nashobah Praying Indians to speak at St. Anne's (date TBA) and supporting bills endorsed by the Massachusetts Indigenous Legislative Agenda, such as changing the Massachusetts state flag. For more info about any of these opportunities, please contact Joe (joe@stanneslincoln.org) or any of the SJC Commission members.

Pastoral Care

Did you know that St. Anne's has a Pastoral Care Commission? We'd like to remind you that we are indeed here! Currently, we are exploring facilitating rides to church and meal deliveries, scheduling parishioner-to-parishioner visits, and praying for those who request to be remembered in that way. We would also love to support you in continuing to foster a community of care for one another here at St. Anne's. Please let us know how else we might support you. If you'd like to be in touch with the Commission, please reach out to Mary Kitses (mkitses@verizon.net) or Garrett (garrett@stanneslincoln.org).

Fellowship

Reintroducing St. Anne's "Foyer Dinner" Groups: Friendship and Fun!

Foyer Dinner Groups are small gatherings of about six to eight people, made up of singles and couples, who meet informally once every four to six weeks for a meal and fellowship at each other's homes. After a ten-year hiatus, we're going to give this another go! Your commitment is for a three-to-four-month cycle, not a whole year, with each household taking one turn at their home.

What's the history behind Foyer Dinners? After the World War II bombing of Coventry Cathedral, small groups of people began meeting to rebuild their community: a modest meal, conversation. In time, "Foyers" began springing up in parishes all over Britain and America. Many Episcopal churches have Foyers to this day.

I'm a very busy person. Is this for me? Absolutely! The time commitment is small and the payoff is big. Foyers traditionally last about two hours. You'll have great conversations and much fun getting to know people. Be sure to bring your calendar so that the next meeting can be scheduled.

What if my home is too small and/or I don't like to cook? Foyers are meant to be simple and comfortable. The host provides the main course and other participants bring a part of the meal to be shared, such as bread, wine, appetizers, a salad, or dessert. Some people just order pizza – the possibilities are endless. It's up to the group to decide how they want to manage the food part. The main thing is to keep it simple.

I have food allergies. How can I be sure that other group members' meals will be suitable for me? If you have food allergies, dietary restrictions, or strong taste preferences, simply inform your group of your concerns at the beginning so that everyone understands what they must consider in preparing the menu. It's also okay if you bring your own meal each time and just join in the conversation.

We are asking parishioners to please sign up on the Foyer Dinners board (outside the Sanctuary) by October 8 as the first dinner will take place in early November. Feel free to contact Christie Kozak at christiekozak@comcast.net or 978-502-5747 for more information or if you have any questions.

Save the date for

AppleFest!

Circle Sunday, October 22, in apple red! Yes, we are hosting our 3rd Annual Applefest after the 10 am service for the third year! Lawn games, kids' activities, hot and cold cider, and apple treats galore!

Coffee Hour Hosting: Sign-Up Board is Up for You!

Keep your eyes peeled for the Coffee Hour sign-up board at this Sunday's Ministry Fair. Grab a friend or two, and sign up for this ministry that serves the whole congregation. Jennie prepares the coffee and sets out all the supplies (sometimes on the table, sometimes on a cart in the kitchen if there is a Saturday event in Flint). All you need to do is bring a container of creamer and enough treats - sweet, savory, or both - to serve about 60 people, and turn on the coffee maker about 30 minutes before the 10 am service lets out. This is an especially fun activity when the particular Sunday is near a holiday. For more information, email Christie Kozak (christiekozak@comcast.net).

Children & Families

Welcome back to Sunday School! Bring your wonder and your stories and your feelings and your questions. Last year we met five new families! Joining a new church is exciting and each of us has our story of how we found St. Anne's, and why we became members. This fall, the catechists agree it is time to reintroduce the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program — and the particular environment of the atrium — to all parents. If you are a PreK through 7th grade Atrium student parent and missed our Zoom meeting last Sunday, please attend the training we're holding in-person at St. Anne's on October 1 from 11:15-12:00. This short training will help you better understand and support our curriculum and all that your child(ren) learn in Atrium.

To get reacquainted this September, we are holding an all-parish "Gallery of Creation" in Flint Hall. Bring something you made yourself, a photo you took, and/or an object that you found in Creation this summer... we will have cards ready to write your name and why this creative found or made object made your summer special. Please take part, whether you're an adult or a child!

We have much to look forward to together in the remaining months of 2023 including the blessing of our stuffed animals and family pets, AppleFest!, learning to serve as acolytes, a parent social, our annual pageant rehearsals, and the blessings we don't even know are headed our way!

Confirmation

This year our confirmation meetings will be held after the 10 am service in the Library, from 11:15 am — 12:15 pm with LUNCH provided! We'll have six sessions: September 24, October 15 and 29, and November 5, 19, and 26. The date for Confirmation will be sometime in the late spring 2024.

Confirmation class is intended for any 8th-10th grader who would like to consider this faith step. Confirmation class will be lesson-based vis-à-vis our traditional conversational Teen Formation program (see below).

Please let Garrett know if your child would like to join Confirmation this fall.

Teen Formation

Our Teen Formation group will meet the third Sunday of every month from 5:30 to 7:30 pm for food, fellowship, and fun. Any teen between 8th and 12th grade is invited. Note that our first meeting, on September 24, will be a cook-out at the Rectory starting at 5:30. Please RSVP to Garrett!

Family Engagement Commission: Fall Fun!

The Family Engagement Commission is ready to welcome our families and children back to St. Anne's after what was hopefully an exciting summer filled with sandcastles, popsicles, road trips, and quality family time! We look forward to helping Sarah Jennings, our Children's Formation Director, at Welcome Back Sunday when we can reacquaint with old families and meet new ones too! We will also be heading up some children's crafts and games throughout the fall, hosting another Autumn Parent Social, and getting "sparkly" at our Children's Holiday Party! If you are interested in joining our commission or teaching in our Atria (classrooms) on Sunday mornings, please send an email to Jennifer Varney (jenniferannevarney@gmail.com) or Sarah Jennings (sarah@stanneslincoln.org).

Parish Business

St. Anne's Hosts the Community

If you take a peek at our online calendar, you'll be surprised at how much is going on here on the St. Anne's campus! Since the end of the pandemic, we have steadily (re)opened our doors to all kinds of community groups, sharing our beautiful spaces with those who gather for exercise, help, friendship, and fun. Among these renters is Hineini Havurah, a Jewish group that celebrates the High Holidays and Shabbat together each month; the Wayland Garden Club and the New England Chapter of the American Needlepoint Guild, who hold monthly meetings; AA and Alanon, whose members meet every single Wednesday evening without fail; parishioner Holly Kania's movement group, the Nia Collective, who dance away each Wednesday morning; a small women-led Catholic group that occasionally uses the Sanctuary for services; and, various one-off events that include birthday parties, concerts, meetings, alternative worship, and recitals (e.g., the Lincoln Land Trust, Kirtans, Noteworthy Music School, etc.).

While these rentals — and that of the Terrace Level by Lincoln School for Children — bring in vital income for St. Anne's, we are thrilled to be a hub of community activity, a place where people can heal, relax, and celebrate. We welcome our parishioners to use St. Anne's spaces — we do not charge you for personal events and give deep discounts to your associated organizations! On occasion we do require the attendance of a sexton for safety and clean-up, but often times it's just you who plays host for your special event in your own church home! Contact Jennie (jennie@stanneslincoln.org) for further details.
